

GREG

MORTON

DATA JOURNALIST

EXPERIENCE

The Baltimore Banner

Data Journalist (2023-)

- Helped shape award-winning coverage across multiple beats balancing short-term stories with deeply reported investigations

The Washington Post

Data Reporting Intern (Fall 2022, Summer 2023)

- Published enterprise stories with the Post's politics team and covered the 2022 midterm elections

NPR's Planet Money

Intern/Production Assistant (Summer 2022)

- Production assistant for Planet Money Summer School

ProPublica

Ida B. Wells Society Data Journalism intern (2021)

- Data reporter on a story from the 'Unwatched' series co-published by ProPublica and the New Orleans Times-Picayune

AWARDS

2025 Philip Meyer Journalism Award Winner

Awarded first prize for our first-of-its-kind analysis investigation of the Baltimore transit system's failure to get thousands of students to school on time.

2024 Pulitzer Prize Finalist

Part of the data team at the Howard Center for Investigative Journalism that was nominated for Investigations award for the AP/Frontline 'Lethal Restraint' project

2024 IRE Award Winner

Part of the team that won the award for Investigations Triggered by Breaking News for stories on the Francis Scott Key Bridge Collapse

2023 Maryland-Delaware-DC Press Association Rookie of the Year

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, COLLEGE PARK

M.J. (2023)

- Howard Center Investigative Reporting Fellow

HOWARD UNIVERSITY

ECONOMICS B.A. (2021)

- Cum Laude
- Abram Harris Econ Honor Society
- Ida B. Wells Society (Howard University Chapter)

CONTACT

301-646-1149

gregorymorton96@gmail.com

linkedin.com/in/gmorton301

bsky.app/profile/invisibae.bsky.social

GitHub.com/invisibae

SKILLS & EXPERTISE

Statistical Analysis: Advanced R, Python, SQL

Web Scraping: Playwrite, Rvest

AWS: Lambda, S3 and EC2

Adobe: Illustrator & AI2HTML

Data Visualization: Mapbox, Flourish, Datawrapper

IPUMS

Modeling and linear regression

Github